OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

LOCAL NEWS

The Ovid Fair is in progress this week. W. A. Woodard, Jr., was in Detroit on Wednesday.

Hon. F. G. Bailey, of Venice, was in the city on Wednesday.

Dr. McCormick has returned from his brief visit with friends in Canada.

Mrs. L. A. Hamblin is at Cohoctah, N. Y., visiting her parents and friends.

Westlake is booming. Has orders for three weeks ahead. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Mrs. G. L. Dimick left one day last week to visit her parents in central New York.

The Council on Monday night made a contract for lighting the streets for the ensuing year.

Hon. Geo. H. VanAustin, of Bay City, was in town on Tuesday and took in Mr. Horr's meeting.

Hon. Wm. M. Kilpatrick will speak four times for the Republicans in Livingston county next week.

The horses of Messrs. C. J. Stuart and Joe Amos, each won second money at the Ovid fair races yesterday.

We have never seen finer fields of growing wheat than are to be seen in all parts of Shiawassee county to-day.

Deacon W. White left on Tuesday evening to attend a meeting of Young Men's Christian Association at Chicago.

We understand that arrangements are being perfected to immediately refit and refurnish Christ church. 'Tis well.

S. F. Smith, C. A. Baldwin, T. J. Horsman are this week in attendance at the session of the Board of Supervisors.

Rev. Geo. H. Wilson, of Biddeford, Maine, will speak at the Congregational church next Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. G. W. Loring is visiting her husband's friends in Hillsdale county. Has been absent for some time and is expected home very soon.

Messrs. Dewey & Stewart desire us to say, though they have received several liberal offers for him, they have not yet sold Jerome Eddy.

There will be a Sunday School Association in Bennington, to be held at the M. E. church, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. on Friday, Oct. 20th.

The Greeno-Democrats have called a convention at Vernon on Tuesday Oct. 17 to nominate a candidate for Mr. Cooper to defeat on the 7th of November.

Rhetorical exercises at the High School this afternoon. Every parent who has children there should be present, and everybody else who can possibly find time.

At the meeting of the Baptist church, held last Sabbath, Rev. J. Lyon and wife were elected delegates to the Baptist State convention to be held at Niles commencing to-day.

The Democrats have secured Hon. Charles S. May, of Kalamazoo, a former Republican Lieutenant Governor, to speak for them at Opera Hall, Owosso, on the 20th instant.

The Baptist State Convention meets at Niles to-day and continues in session until Tuesday. Rev. T. S. Leonard will be in attendance as a delegate of the Shiawassee Association.

There will be a church social at the Rectory, for the benefit of the church improvement fund, on Friday evening of this week. A very cordial invitation is extended to all.

Sample copies of the Farmers' Review can be had on application at THE TIMES office. Remember THE TIMES and Farmer's Review from date of subscription to January 1st 1884 for $2.75.

The notice of Prof. Seelye, calling the attention of the teachers and friends of education in this county to the State Teachers' Institute to be held in this city next week, should not be overlooked.

On Wednesday morning by a vote of 12 to 10 for all others, Mr. James A. Chapin, of Owosso, was elected a Superintendent of the Poor for the ensuing three years. In politics he is a strong Republican.

There should be no failure on the part of readers of THE TIMES to note the new advertisement of Mr. C. C. Duff. Duff does business on the live and let live principle and hence always has business that pays.

Mr. Calvin Gilbert, who lives on Main street, had his pork barrel robbed Saturday night and lost about 100 lbs. of pork just packed. The thief went into the cellar through an outside doorway which had been left unfastened.

Mr. E. Reynolds of Shiawassee township left at THE TIMES office one day last week three onions of the variety known as "Giant Roco," that weighed, quick weight, four pounds. He had a large field of them and after they were pulled up some fellows stole about ten bushels. It ought not to trouble the officers to catch the thieves if they offer the produce for sale, as we do not believe there is another such lot of onions in the State.

The funeral services of Melvin J. Eggleston were held on Wednesday last at his father's residence, on Clinton St. Rev. T. S. Leonard, Pastor of the Baptist Church in this city officiated. The remains were taken to Flint for burial.

Rev. James Hamilton, pastor of the M. E. church at Ionia, will speak in Opera Hall, this Friday evening in favor of political prohibition. We sincerely hope he may be greeted with a full house. We do not in the least fear free discussion.

The official list of the premiums awarded at the County Fair will be found in another place in this issue, and we ask for it the attention of all of our citizens who are interested in the growth and general prosperity of the producing classes.

The brief extract from the speech of Mr. C. A. Towne, of Lansing, which is published in another column, on the financial questions, is of so much moment in the present political contest, that we ask for it the most careful attention of every reader of THE TIMES.

W. H. Andrus, through our advertising columns, calls the attention of the public to his extensive stock of door knobs, latches, which he sells at low prices, and of which he has the exclusive sale in the counties of Shiawassee, Clinton, and Genesee. Give him a call.

On Saturday night Mrs. William Bloodworth, of Bancroft, a lady 83 years old, was attacked by a vicious ram and butted to death. We understand that when found in the lot she had been dead several hours, and that the precise time that the assault was made is not known.

The new turn table for use at the Junction has arrived and will soon be placed in position, and the track to the round house is already nearly completed. Look out for some other valuable improvements to be made by the D. & G. H. & M. R'y near this city at no distant day.

The Board of Supervisors are now in session at Corunna but up to Wednesday noon had perfected but little business, most of the time being given to the several committees. At an early date as possible we shall place before our readers a full report of their proceedings.

The attention of the citizens is called to the necessity of cleaning up all the alleys and back lots about their premises. Diphtheria is spreading in various parts of the State and is epidemic, and every possible precaution should be taken to guard against it by all classes of our citizens.

Rev. T. S. Leonard went to Chicago Wednesday evening to attend the Christian Convention in session Oct. 11th to 13th, at which Rev. C. Spurgeon, Jr., Marcus Rainsford and others from England, as well as the most celebrated Christian workers of this country, deliver addresses.

Mr. Dawes and daughters desire us to tender their friends and the public their sincere thanks for the kindly ministrations during the sickness and death of his beloved wife and their mother, and to assure them that such manifestations of unalloyed friendship will ever be remembered with gratitude.

Rev. B. F. Matrau informs us that he has sent a letter, declining the call to the Rectorship of the parishes at Idaho Springs and Georgetown, Col. This is certainly a very patriotic act on the part of Mr. Matrau, who was tendered in those places in Colorado a salary of $1,900 a year, payable quarterly in advance, while he remains here for $900 a year.

To the special attention of every temperance Republican in Shiawassee county we commend the letter of Rev. F. E. York, a prominent temperance Methodist minister stationed at Grand Blanc, Genesee county, printed in another column. To political prohibitionists, too, the letter may be of value in suggesting the true duty of total abstinence men in the present political emergency.

Mrs. Aggie Sinclair, wife of Henry Newton of Saginaw, a former teacher in the city schools in Owosso, died at the residence of her mother in Jonesville, on Sunday last of congestion of the brain. She had been sick about two weeks with gastric fever, but the fever had been broken and she was supposed to be recovering, when she was attacked with congestion of the brain and soon passed away.

The D. & G. H. & M. Railway Company will sell excursion tickets from Owosso to Detroit and return on Saturday, Oct. 14th, going east by the mail train and returning on night train after the close of the celebrated comic opera at Whitney's Opera House. The play is entitled, "The Merry War," by the N. Y. Comic Opera Co., Carl Herman, Manager. Tickets which include an admission ticket to the Opera House, only $3.40.

The Editor of THE TIMES has accepted an invitation from the Republican State Central Committee of New Hampshire, to make ten political speeches in that State and leaves for Concord on Saturday to be gone two weeks. During his absence the editorial department will be in wide awake Republican hands, and the publisher will be constantly at his post to look after all business calls from any of our friends.

The Owosso Dramatic club will soon produce "Under the Gaslights" with all its scenic effects with T. J. Horsman as Ray Trafford, G. S. Beardsley as Byke, J. M. Beckwith as Snorky, Mrs. T. J. Horsman as Laura Courtland, Miss Ada Crippen as Pearl, Mrs. G. S. Beardsley as Penelope, and others. The play will be put on the boards in fine style. Look out for the Down Express and a man tied to the track. Music will be furnished by Wesen's Orchestra.

On Thursday night of last week the residence of Hon. Josiah Turner was entered by burglars who ransacked every part of the house, but it does not appear that they were after anything except money or jewelry, etc., as the family do not find any article missing. The Judge and daughter came here early this week, put things in order, and placed the house in charge of Mr. French, and it will not be unoccupied in the future.

Callender's New Colored Minstrels will appear at Opera Hall, Owosso, on the evening of Tuesday Oct. 31st. This company is noted world-wide. They have 8 artistic clog exponents, 10 irrepressible end men, 30 Ethiopian performers, and is accompanied by a full brass band, 20 pieces, all uniformed in England. Full particulars will appear in THE TIMES later concerning this celebrated combination, which commands the highest praise from the press in all parts of the country.

The business importance of Owosso is growing into public favor and is attracting the attention of manufacturers from various parts of the State. Latest among these is Mr. Charles Stevenson, now of Eaton Rapids, who proposes to move here his extensive shops for the manufacture of tinware. This business did more for years to build up Albion than any other enterprise in the village, and if Mr. S. brings here the business activity that has marked his work at Eaton Rapids, it will prove a valuable addition to the productive industries of the city. We learn that he has rented the vacant brick block on Washington street near the race and will soon occupy it. Success to the enterprise.

Messrs. C. Hibbard & Son, of Bennington, purchased last week of Hon. William Ball, Hamburg, Livingston county, a registered Merino ram one year old, bred by L. & F. E. Moore, of Vermont, sired by Old Centennial. Price, $100. Messrs. Hibbard are bound to have the best and are willing to pay good prices to secure them. They also purchased from the State Agricultural College, a pure bred Berkshire boar, bred from imported stock.

G. R. Warren, of Bennington, purchased a Berkshire breeding sow from the Agricultural College last week. She was bred from imported stock.

The Bancroft Advertiser: The Owosso (a) fair closed last week without any serious accident. On account of its being on such a small scale, even an accident would give us something to have remembered it by. It will be a whole year before the motions for a new fair are to be again maneuvered. Jealousy seems to be the controlling influence that directs the policy of The Advertiser in speaking of anything that pertains to Owosso. Well, Owosso has survived all the assaults of the opposition and is booming to-day more than any other town in this section of the State, and bids fair to continue to prosper, and to build up its industries, despite the petty assaults of the "fly on the horn of the ox." At the same time it may be well to say that The Advertiser is decidedly mistaken when it says the Fair was on a small scale, for it is true that the department of horses, to say nothing about some of the others, could not be excelled in any county in the State.

CARD OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Eggleston hereby tender their thanks to all those who so kindly assisted them in the time of their bereavement.

THE OWOSSO POST OFFICE.—The following is the amount of business at the Owosso Post Office for the quarter ending Sept. 30 1882:

Rec'd for the sale of stamps,
Stamped envelopes and
Post Cards	$1,303.45
Box Rental	104.20

Republican Rally.

On Tuesday evening the Republicans of Owosso opened the campaign by a rousing meeting at Opera Hall, which, despite the rain, was filled with an audience composed mostly of voters. Prior to the opening, Meyrelles' 21st K. T. Band favored the audience with some choice selections that were well appreciated. At eight o'clock Hon. R. G. Horr was introduced and spoke for over two hours, giving a masterly expose of the principles and policy of the Republican party, its past history, its present position on all the questions of the day, and the results of the war, and the financial legislation. He was listened to with marked attention, held his audience as if they were spell-bound, and was frequently interrupted with enthusiastic cheers. All in all the meeting was a decided success, and left a lasting impression which will be felt for good all through the campaign.

Teachers' Institute.

We desire again to call attention to the fact that the State Teacher's Institute for Shiawassee county is to be held in this city next week, beginning on Monday afternoon, Oct. 16, and continuing through the week.

Prof. L. McLouth, of the State Normal, Ypsilanti, has been appointed as conductor and Prof. H. A. Ford, of Detroit, as assistant, so that we see that the work of the Institute will be in good hands and teachers can depend upon being instructed in the most improved and thorough methods, and of receiving the best of advice upon the difficult points of their work. We most earnestly invite Boards of Education, and others, who have in their hands the vast interests of our schools, to come with us, and both see for themselves what is being done and assist in making this very important branch of our school system a great success.

Let no teacher of this county, who has a desire for improving his character and reputation as a teacher, and for advancing the interests of himself and his profession, be absent from this Institute.

School Boards throughout the county can afford to close their school for a week, and give their teachers the time for attending the Institute, as it fits them so much the more efficiently to do their work, and to more than make up for the time lost from school.

The day sessions will be held in the High School room, and will be devoted to the discussions of methods and subjects of particular interest to teachers.

The evening lectures, which will be of a popular character, and of general interest will, through the kindness of the trustees of the Baptist church, be held in that house; and to these we especially invite our citizens.

It has not been advised by the State Superintendent, nor thought best to undertake entirely free entertainments; but arrangements have been made at the National Hotel, and other boarding places for reduced rates to teachers; besides, as entertainment for a sufficient number could not be obtained at these places, the ladies of the M. E. church have offered to provide for a good number, by furnishing meals at their new chapel rooms, and to provide free lodging.

Let every teacher of the county be present and aid in advancing the interests of this cause.

DAWES.—Oct. 8th, at her residence on Hickory St. in this city, of neuralgia, Mrs. Juliet Dawes, wife of M. C. Dawes, in the 48th year of her age. Mrs. Dawes was born in Murray, Orleans Co., New York, Jan. 11th, 1835. She was one of thirteen children, eight brothers and four sisters, of whom survive her five brothers and two sisters. At the age of eighteen she married M. C. Dawes and settled in her native county; coming to Norvill, Jackson Co., Mich., in 1861. In 1862 Mr. Dawes enlisted in the 20th Michigan Infantry, and she returned to her old home. After the war they settled in Manchester, Washtenaw Co., Mich.; moving to Grass Lake, Jackson Co., four years later, and to Owosso in July 1874, where they have since resided. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn the loss of a loving, devoted wife and mother. At the age of seventeen years, Mrs. Dawes joined the Baptist church with which she remained till death. The funeral was held at their residence Tuesday afternoon, Rev. T. S. Leonard, Pastor of the Baptist church, conducting the service.
